Snowflake Parade Rules

1. All entries must be decorated according to a holiday theme. Only the name of the organization or company will be permitted on floats or entries.
2. No participant on the float may be dressed as Santa Claus or Mrs. Claus. The Snowflake Festival Committee secures Santa and Mrs. Claus for the event.
3. If media crews approach you for a quick interview, please keep the floats moving in a slow manner. DO NOT STOP!
4. Political and/or commercial handbills must be approved by the parade committee. The handbill must be presented to the committee no later than December 1st, 2011 for approval.
5. Parade must keep moving!! Please do not stop or perform maneuvers or routines that will slow down the parade. Please determine in advance if your routine or presentation will hinder your ability to keep moving with the parade and make any necessary changes prior to the parade beginning.
6. Due to safety considerations, children under 12 must be on floats or moving vehicles not in marching units.
7. No throwing of candy or other favors along the parade route. Candy or favors (i.e. flags, fans, etc.) may be handed out along the parade route.
8. Limit of 2 vehicles per entry unless approved by the snowflake parade committee.
9. Absolutely no "for sale" signs on vehicles.
10. Horses must be followed by a cleanup crew!
11. For environmental purposes, participants are encouraged to follow proper paint disposal guidelines including using disposable paint cans, brushes, etc so that the clean-up consists of solid waste (vs. washing of waste down the drain). It is a violation of the City of Klamath Falls Sewer Use Ordinance to dispose of anything that discolors or has the potential to have a negative impact on the wastewater treatment system. Visit www.dec.ny.gov/docs/materials_minerals_pdf/paint.pdf for more info.
12. Your position in the parade and your participant packet will be available for pickup at the Chamber office on December 6, 2011. To ensure a smooth parade, please obtain your # prior to noon on Thursday, December 8th.
13. The deadline to apply for the 2011 parade is December 1, 2011. Applications received after December 1st, 2011 will be positioned at the end of the parade on a first-come, first-served basis.

And don't forget.... HAVE FUN!
